

The Success Process: Ten Steps to Sustainable, Fulfilling Success

---

- Stop tolerating.
When you stop putting up with stuff, you will have more energy.
- Get complete.
When you complete unfinished business and fully communicate, you will experience peace.
- Simplify everything.
When you simplify your life, you will have much more space, and you will experience balance.
- Strengthen your foundation.
When your needs are met and your personal foundation is solid, confidence replaces fear.
- Orient around what matters.
When your life is oriented around what is most important to you, you will have clarity about what's next.
- Experiment and improve continuously.
When you try new things or ways of thinking, you will become a more creative person.
- Strengthen your strengths.
When you build on what you have, you will become more successful.
- Stockpile.
When you build a reserve in every area, you can leverage more opportunities more quickly.
- Integrate your life.
When you make sure your life's components fit together well, you will experience effortlessness.
- Polish everything.
When you buff up every aspect of your life, you will feel even more proud to be a human being.
